The ALP registration table will be in another part of the hotel where the sleeping rooms and meeting rooms are located. If you are driving you will want to drive around to the parking lot that is closer to our rooms.

Photographer: Mary Armstrong has agreed to be our conference photographer. Her studio will be close to all hotel activities and she will be set up to take professional portraits. Mary will be photographing the entire conference. Be sure to order group photos that will be taken at the Kentucky Capitol Rotunda. She will have an order form with the cost of 5x7, 8x10, wallet, CDs, DVDs, Slide Shows that are candid photos set to music, etc.

Weather: Springtime in Kentucky could be a mixture of any season. It could be in the 80s or very cool and rainy and everything in between!

Important The 2017 ALP Conference Committee is very mindful that this conference will be a little pricier than the last couple of conferences. Most full service hotels charge more than $125 per night. We are getting a very good deal at $100 a night including tax. April is the season for weddings and horse racing at Keeneland. Meals at the hotel require a 24% service fee on top of the cost of the meal. The Association must also meet a $3,500 food and beverage charge in order to receive free meeting and conference rooms. The committee had a long meeting with the hotel caterer and we believe we have gotten a good variety and the best prices we can for the meals. The committee continues to work to find sponsorships for this event to pay for buses, speakers and entertainment.

Confirmation: All registered participants will receive an email confirmation at the time of registration and any other updates or developments about the conference after the registration deadline.

Pre Conference Activity: Waveland State Historic Site Tour

The Waveland mansion was built by the grandnephew of Daniel Boone, Joseph Bryan. Joseph supported the Confederacy during the Civil War. The historical interpreters are excited to host ALP members. When making a reservation, please tell them you are with ALP.

3 pm Tour $7 per person, ($6 seniors) Call 859-272-3611,
225 Waveland Museum Road, Lexington, 40514

Roger Billings – Book ($28.00)

The Legal Career of America's Greatest President. This work is a comprehensive and very readable presentation of the newest area of research on Lincoln. The chapter on Lincoln's legal ethics is amusing and a little startling. In all, the best writers concerning Lincoln's legal career are represented.

Kent Masterson Brown – Videos ($19.95 each)

Lincoln's in Kentucky. The Lincolns in Kentucky chronicles the years Abraham Lincoln's family spent in Kentucky. The story follows Captain Abraham Lincoln (President Lincoln's grandfather) and his family's settlement in Kentucky in 1781. And the hardship and loss Thomas Lincoln and his wife, Nancy Hanks, suffered due to disease and death while living and raising a family. In the end, the Lincolns moved to Indiana because they lost all their lands in Kentucky.

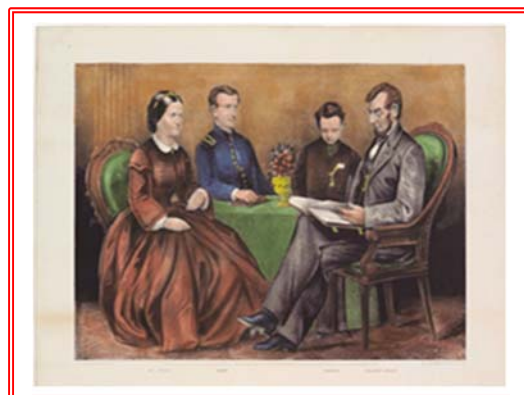

Henry Clay and the Struggle for the Union – This video explores the turbulent forty years leading up to the Civil War. It is the first document ever produced on Henry Clay in Kentucky, the most dominant public figure in the formulation of the compromises in 1820, 1833 and 1850. The production examines the impact of slavery on the expansion of the nation westward and how conflict between North and South, free states and slave states, was, in the end, irrepressible.

Stuart Sanders – E-Book, Available on Amazon.Com – Kindle version $2.99

Emilie Todd Helm, Lincoln's Confederate "Little Sister" The true story of President Abraham Lincoln's Confederate sister-in-law, Emilie Todd Helm, and her visit to the White House as a rebel widow during the American Civil War.
